Quorum Auctio (in Gratiam & Commodum Celeberrimæ Academiæ OXONIENSIS) Oxoniæ habenda est Novemb. 9. 1692. apud (The Auction-House,) prope Ecclesiam B. Mariæ Oxon.

Catalogues are ready to be Distributed Gratis by G. West, Joh. Crosley, and Joh. Howell, Booksellers in OXFORD. And at Sam. Smith's Shop at the Prince's Arms, at Luke Meredith's at the Star, and at Thomas Bennet's Shop at the Half-Moon, Booksellers in St. Paul's Church-yard, LONDON.

Conditions of Sale.

I. THat he who bids most, is the Buyer; and if any Difference arise, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book or Books shall forthwith be exposed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwise expressed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That the Money for the Book or Books, so bought, is to be Paid by the Buyer within One Month after the Auction is ended, at the Place where they were Sold; and there upon Payment thereof, the Book or Books shall be delivered.

IV. That all Gentlemen Buyers be pleased to give in their Names and Degrees, and of what Colledges or Halls they belong to.

The Sale will begin on Wednesday the Ninth of November, 1692. at the Auction-House adjoining to St. Mary's Church, from One to Five each Afternoon, and so continue till all the Books are sold: They may be View'd at the Auction-House from Nine to Eleven, and from Two to Four, till the Sale begins.
